

Allowing media companies to own all forms of media in a given geographic area seriously jeopardizes the public trust and compromises the variety of input needed to support a democratic government. Please do not reconsider the ban on cross-ownership. Keep it in place. Preserve and protect the multiplicity of viewpoints represented by different ownership of print and electronic media in a given area. Thank you for your consideration of this comment.